Clerks Report – Actions from last meeting

- a) Dog Bin – Bolton Percy Relocation. The cost to relocate this bin is £62.84 + VAT which are the responsibility of the Parish Council to pay. After speaking with SDC some of the locations suggested are not suitable for vehicle to empty the bin. It was decided to defer the final decision until the November meeting when hopefully all councillors would be present.
- b) School Lane, Bolton Percy – Parking. NYCC Highways have confirmed they have contacted the residents on four occasions,(two they had replied to by residents) but no resolution had been done. Councillors confirmed they would leave it to Highways to make further contact and decisions with the householder. Clerk to write to the resident on behalf of the Parish Council.
- c) Tree Planting. More information is to investigate as to what kind of trees can be obtained and in what quantity before any final decision is made.
- d) Optimum Bikes Report. Cllr Tucker reported he had met the owner of this company who stated none of his employees were responsible for the speeding bikes on Colton Lane. Customers were not allowed to take the bikes on a test run. Parish Council to review any further concerns.
- e) Cllr Robertson to Report on Cricket Club Items. Parish Council are wondering if the Cricket Club would be prepared to plant more trees round their ground – once tree options are known Cllr Robertson to discuss with CC Chairman. Secondly the Defibrillator. This has been handed over to CC Chairman who sends his thanks for thinking of them. As no charger or instructions was with the unit Cricket Club to purchase. Cllr Robertson to pass on contact details for defibrillator accessories and registration advice.
- f) Broadband Phase 3 – Steeton. Howard Ferguson has come back with an update on the progress on this. Cllr Lister has a copy of this email if anyone would like to read it.

2. Correspondence

- a) Martin Ibbotson Letter. This family are not happy with the wording in the PC minutes which gives their name on the planning application for Braegate Produce. This family are no longer involved and ask their name be taken off. It was explained that SDC continue to add the Ibbotson name on all their planning applications. Clerk written back to Mr Ibbotson and also informed SDC.
- b) Citizens Advice Selby. This community service are requesting a donation. Unfortunately the councillors declined to give a donation.
- c) Environment Agency – Gauge Board Pump Alley. Due to the absence of Cllr Isherwood this has been deferred to the November meeting

3. Planning

- a) Newlands, Bolton Percy. 2019/0932/TPO Application for consent to clean out and remove any dead wood and crown thin by 15% and work to overhanging branch to 1 No Horse Chestnut Tree covered by TPO 1/1972. No objections

4. Finance

- a) Clerks Salary – Paid
Additional Information - SDC 2nd instalment of Precept - £2625.00

5. Parishioners Items for Discussion

Cllr Steele reported on the major problems in Colton due to the heavy rain. 4 gardens were flooded and manhole covers erupted. Clerk to contact Yorkshire Water to get an update on the pumping station storage tank and results to test bores recently carried out.

A resident raised concern regarding the amount of money NYCC are giving Welcome to Yorkshire. Cllr Steele replied that this was not really a Parish Council matter, but he shared the residents concern.

Meeting closed at 8.50pm
